

Crawford, J.W.

<https://search.adarchives.org/en/permalink/archivaldescr483>

Format: textual records

Collection/Fonds: Peter Hessel collection

Description Level: File

Scope and Content: File contains a photocopy of a page from the Dictionary of Canadian Biographies, concerning John Willoughby Crawford, a Conservative lawyer who - together with his associates - acted on behalf of the Laird of McNab in the 1842 Hincks Trial which ended in legal victory for the Laird. Crawford was the brother-in-law of Solicitor-General Henry Sherwood.

Accession No.: 1994 0021